

Plenary I

Wednesday, October 7
8:00 am – 10:00 am

Kayla Shell

Kayla Shell, president of Out & Equal's board of directors, is the legal director of Dell's large enterprise sales division. She has worked for Dell since 1998 and has served in various assignments as a sales, marketing, advertising and e-commerce attorney. Kayla serves as co-chair of the executive advisory board of PRIDE, Dell's LGBT network group. During Kayla's leadership of PRIDE, Dell became an Out & Equal Workplace Summit sponsor and achieved a 100 percent rating on the Human Rights Campaign's Corporate Equality Index. In addition to her work at Dell, she is a Federal Club Council member of HRC, and actively supports Equality Texas, a lobbying organization, and Atticus Circle, an allies organization. Kayla lives in Austin with her partner, Randi Shade, and their children.